AIRWORK Limited

FLYING AS A CAREER

To young men or women who wish to take up flying professionally, the Airwork School of Flying offers a complete course of instruction including solo flying, cross-country and night flying and blind flying, technical and ground tuition in air pilotage, meteorology, engines and aircraft up to the Air Ministry standard. All subjects are taught by fully qualified tutors who, as in the case of ab initio instruction, give individual attention to each student.

For those who wish to study intensively, accommodation is available at the first-class Aerodrome Hotel and, concurrently with the flying course, the pupil can be coached individually for the 2nd Class Navigators Licence.

Full particulars of the facilities of the Airwork School of Flying for those who desire to learn to fly for pleasure or profit, and the special course available, will be sent post free on application to the Chief Instructor. Telephone: Hounslow 2345.

Coronation Week night flights over London. Apply early Airwork School of Flying. Telephone: Hounslow 2345.
